ROOSEVELT FLAYS SENATOR PENROSE

Bull Moose Compares Former Republican Boss to a Cuttle Fish

DENIES CHARGE AGAINST HIM

Teddy Declares He Knew Nothing of Standard Oil Contribution to His Campaign—Says Trusts Are Fighting Him

Wilkesbarre, Pa., August 22.—A severe attack on Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, was made tonight by Colonel Roosevelt. The Senator, he said, was like a cuttlefish which, lacking the courage to fight its enemy "squirts ink" in the hope that it may escape. In flaying the Senator Colonel Roosevelt repeated his denial that he had known of any Standard Oil contribution to the Presidential campaign of 1904.

Colonel Roosevelt's speech was made in the armory, at a meeting held ii connection with the jubilee of the Rev. Father Curran.

"Recently," said Colonel Roosevelt, "certain definite and specific charges were made against Senator Penrose. I personally know nothing of them and had not even looked into the charges until Mr. Penrose succeeded in riveting my attention upon them. Yesterday he got up in the Senate to deny those charges and brought in hearsay charges against me.

"I call your attention to an analogue to Senator Penrose among the inferior forms of animal life—the cuttlefish. When the cuttlefish is attacked by an enemy which it lacks the courage to oppose, it squirts ink and tries to escape, trusting that the enemy will attack the ink instead of the cuttlefish. I now propose to clear away the ink and attack the cuttlefish.

"The statement of Mr. Penrose was that he had heard that by my directions $100,000 was asked for from the Standard Oil Company for my campaign and contributed, and that a further sum was asked for.

"Mr. Penrose gave this evidence on hearsay. It is a thoroughly base and contemptible thing for Mr. Penrose to repeat such evidence on hearsay."

Colonel Roosevelt then referred to letters which he gave out last night, which he sent to George B. Cortelyou, chairman of the Republican National Committee in 1904, directing that no campaign contribution be received from the Standard Oil Company.

"Any man who reads those letters," he continued, "is bound, if he is an honest man, to state that I acted in absolute good faith and that if any contribution was made by the Standard Oil Company, it was without my knowledge and in spite of my absolute prohibition.

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating. Every trust-controlled newspaper in the land is doing everything in its power to beat me. Do you think that those trust papers would be trying to beat me if I had been satisfactory to the Standard Oil Company and that crowd? They are against me because not one trust, not one individual, was able to use or influence me while I was President. That is why they hate me."

NEGRO B. L. CONVENTION

Urged to Quit Sitting Around Barber Shops and Complaining

Chicago, August 22.—Negroes were urged to "quit sitting around barber shops and complaining of their troubles if they want to succeed" in an address by Charles Banks, of Mound Bayou, La., before the National Negro Business League Convention today.

"Loafing in the streets and barber shops, and complaining of 'hard luck' never will mean advancement for the negro," said Banks, who is vice president of the league. "Complaints and wailings never will do any good, the negro must work to better himself."

Manufacturers of hair preparations who advertised their productions to "take kinks out of the negroes' hair," were characterized as "an insult to the women of the negro race," by a colored miss, L. H. Coleman, of Washington, D. C., in an address.

Joseph T. Jones, a Cincinnati, Ohio, manufacturer, in an address said that the success of the negro depended on the encouragement he received from his own people.

"Mothers and fathers should encourage their children to patronize the negro merchant; should themselves buy provisions from a negro grocer; when ill, call a negro doctor, and when in trouble, trust a negro lawyer," he said.

W. H. Bell, of Evansville, Ind., told the delegates how he worked up from a salary of 50 cents a day to a business paying him $400 a week.

"It was easy," he said, "for the reason that I saved some money every week from my small wage until I could get started in business."

Nashville, August 22.—James H. Taylor, night watchman at the elevator of the Pinner Coal Company, corner Eleventh and Johnson avenues, was found dead at his post this morning with a terrible gash in the top of his head. Foul play is the theory on which the police are working.

TWO INDICTMENTS IN POLICE FRAME

Library of Congress

Former Members of Strong Arm Squad are Indicted for Perjury

GUNMEN PLEAD NOT GUILTY

Detectives White and Steinert, Men Indicted, Suspended From Police Force—More Bank Deposits Come to Light

New York, August 22.—Two former members of Police Lieutenant Charles Becker's strong-arm squad of gambling raiders, Detectives James White and Charles Steinert, were indicted for perjury today in connection with the alleged "framing up" of Jack Zelig, Eastside gang leader, who is said to have suggested the names of the gunmen in the Rosenthal murder plot. The indictments came shortly after Becker, charged with instigating the murder, had refused to plead to the superceding indictment against him, and four of his alleged tools, "Whitey" Lewis, "Dago Frank," Jack Sullivan and William Shapiro had entered pleas of not guilty of murder to the indictments. Becker was allowed to delay entering his plea until Tuesday.

White and Steinert, who arrested Zelig on the charge of carrying a concealed weapon, were accused in the indictment of falsely swearing that they found a revolver in the gang leader's pocket. Becker, according to testimony before them, ordered Zelig's arrest for the purpose of getting him in his power and making use of him to carry out his alleged plan to get rid of Rosenthal. In addition to the testimony of witnesses, who declared that the detectives had refused Zelig's demand that he be publicly searched when they arrested him, Zelig himself furnished the grand jury what District Attorney Whitman regards as conclusive evidence that the charge was false. Zelig produced the coat he wore on the night of his arrest and showed it to the jurors to demonstrate that it had no pocket large enough to contain a revolver.

Zelig today declared in an interview that Jack, Becker's self-accused graft collector, was the man who engineered the "frame up." Zelig absolved Becker.

Detectives White and Steinert were immediately suspended from the police force by Commissioner Waldo as soon as he was notified of their indictment. Steinert was locked up in the Tombs tonight and White, who is ill, was placed under arrest, but not taken to prison. District Attorney Whitman will ask tomorrow that they be placed under $5,000 bail.

Mr. Whitman today procured from Justice McCall a panel of 50 men from which the 23 members of the extraordinary September grand jury will be selected to co-operate with Justice Goff in his proposed John Doe investigation of the general police graft situation. The prosecutor's investigators turned up today evidence of large bank accounts held by a police inspector and a high civilian employe of the police department which will be a subject of investigation. The inspector had accounts in three banks and the civilian in one, and all of them were begun during the time in which Jack Rose said that gambling graft "pickings" were the best.

The District Attorney has a record of their visits to the banks and to safe deposit boxes and has found a surprising parallel in the dates on which the inspector visited one of his banks and the civilian his safe deposit box.

Still more of Becker's band deposits came to light today. Detailed tabulations of his accounts in nine banks show deposits as high as $6,300 in one day. There is one of $6,000, one of $3,000, two of $2,500, one of $2,300, four of $1,511, four of $1,000 and several in amounts varying between $1,000 and $2,000. The total for these nine banks was $49,623 and it is believed his total "savings" will foot up to $100,000.

The records show that on July 31st, two days after Becker's arrest, his wife withdrew $16,500 and on August 1st, took out $3,500 more.

FOUND HIS MOTHER DEAD.

Lad Planned a Surprise Home-Coming But Received Shock of Sorrow.

Moundsville, W. Va., Aug. 22.—Edward Crim, 19 years of age, of this city, attending Valparaiso College, spent a vacation in Indiana with friends before starting home, and he planned to surprise his mother, Mrs. Sarah C. Joiner.

He did not write to tell her when he would return home, but yesterday he quietly slipped into his mother's lawn and tiptoed up to the window, planning for a secret entrance.

Peering through the window he saw a dim light burning and saw his mother clothed in a shroud in her coffin. She had died on Sunday. Members of the family had been unable to locate young Crim, not knowing where he was. The lad fainted at the sight and is in a serious condition from the nervous shock.

AMERICANS TO BE FULLY PROTECTED

A Sufficient Force Will Be Sent to Nicaragua to Save Them

STATE DEPARTMENT'S ACTION

Officials Are Not Worried over Possible Complications and Will Send Additional Troops If It Is Necessary.

Washington, Aug. 22.—The State Department is determined to extend the fullest possible measure of protection to American life and property in Nicaragua. It was announced today that if the naval forces now in that country, even when heavily reenforced by the large marine contingent now being assembled at League Island and the several hundred bluejackets en route to Corinto on the California and the Denver, are not sufficient to assure that protection, more forces will be rushed forward until that end has been secured.

The Stae Department still is unmoved by utterances in Congress, relying implicity and confidently upon the long line of precedents, where American military and naval forces have been employed without Congressional direction in cases where American life and property were in jeopardy. The officials declare that that is the sole purpose of the landing of the marines and bluejackets in Nicaragua.

When the reenforcements, which will be en route to Nicaragua before the end of this week, have arrived at their destination, the navy will have ashore in that country the most numerous force it has ever landed in an American republic in time of peace.

Admiral Southerland, who will take command of the entire combined force of bluejackets and marines upon his arrival at Corinto on his flagship California, has the unlimited confidence of the State Department based upon the manner in which he handled the revolutionary uprising in Santo Domingo, about five years ago.

Government officials do not admit that the prevention of the bombardment of an unprotected town filled with non-combatants, with many resident Americans, and with substantial business interests within its limits, constitutes warfare in the modern civilized sense, for such brutal attacks are expressly prohibited by all of the rules of modern warfare to which the nations of the earth have subscribed under the Geneva convention. If the conflicting factions wish to fight, the American naval commander will not attempt to prevent them, but they must choose other grounds than the limits of a defenseless town with large American interests.

The marines now being assembled at Philadelphia for transportation on the Prairie to Colon and thence by rail and water to Corinto, are being drawn from the navy yards at Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Washington, D. C.; Norfolk and Charleston, S. C.; and will sail from League Island Saturday night.

The reported killing of the two Americans, Dodd and Phillips in Nicaragua, is being thoroughly investigated by the department. Dodd the Mississippian, who was slain, was well known to Representative Sisson, of Mississippi, who said tonight that both Dodd and his father were lawyers in his Congressional district.

"The situation in Nicaragua is serious and critical," said Representative Sulzer, chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee tonight. "The massacre in Nicaragua of Americans and native citizens is one of the greatest tragedies in Central American history. I am in communication with the State Department and know that everything is being done by this government to protect life and property there."

Young American Murdered.

Jackson, Miss., Aug. 22.—Harvey Dodd, the young American, reported murdered by rebels in the general massacre at Leon, Nicaragua, August 19th, was the son of H. L. Dodd, of Kosciusko, Miss., a prominent lawyer. Dodd was 35 years old. Young Dodd had been admitted to the practice of law in Mississippi, but he was of a roving disposition and recently he went south. He wrote from Panama saying he intended to go either to Nicaragua or Colombia. Immediately the elder Dodd advertised in South and Central American newspapers requesting his son to come home soon. These advertisements had not been answered. Mr. Dodd was ignorant of his son's death until this afternon when he was notified by the Associated Press.

STATEMENT FROM DIXON.

Says Progressive Campaign Expenses Amounted to Only $160,000.

Chicago, Aug. 22.—United States Senator Joseph M. Dixon, director of the Progressive campaign, tonight issued a statement in which he declared that the campaign expense of the Progressives before the Republican National Convention amounted to less than $160,000. He said that the amount of money spent by the Progressive organization from its Washington bureau during this period had been grossly exaggerated.

JOHN D. ARCHBOLD TESTIFIES TODAY

Will Tell Senate Committee About His Campaign Contributions

ATTACKS ON THE BULL MOOSE

Senate Engages In Political Recrimination to Show Roosevelt Knew Of Great Corporation's Contributions

Washington, August 22.—John D. Archbold, of the Standard Oil Company, will appear at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning before the sub-committee of the Senate Investigating Campaign Contributions Committee. The announcement that he would appear followed a day of bitter political recrimination on the floor of the Senate, devoted to an effort to show that former President Roosevelt knew that funds contributed by big corporations were used to help elect him in 1905.

The attack on former President Roosevelt today originated in a colloquy between Senator Reed, of Missouri, Democrat, and Senator Boies Penrose, of Pennsylvania, who presented a resolution demanding an investigation of the circumstances set forth in his statement to the Senate yesterday in which he charged that $100,000 of Standard Oil money went into the 1904 Roosevelt campaign fund with President Roosevelt's knowledge.

Senators Penrose, Reed and Williams each attacked Colonel Roosevelt and Senator Poindexter, of Washington, a supporter of the new Progressive party, came to his defense. Senator Poindexter charged that a combination of "regular Republicans" and Democraes was at work to defame Colonel Roosevelt. The decision to summon Mr. Archbold at once was made by Senator Clapp early in the day, before the interrogation of Senator Penrose by Senator Reed began.

He got into communication with Mr. Archbold in New York, by long distance telephone and the Standard Oil official agreed to appear. Senator Pomerene, of Ohio, was designated to sit as the Democratic member of the special committee, until the return of either Senator Lea or Senator Paynter.

The debate between Senators Reed and Penrose was marked by the readiness with which the latter replied to Senator Reed's questions. Early in the afternoon the two Senators, with Senator Smith, of Maryland, had held a short conference in one of the rooms adjoining the Senate chamber.

Senator Penrose, in answer to questions from Senator Reed, declared that "according to his information," Colonel Roosevelt knew that $100,000 of Standard Oil money had been received and spent in 1904, before he wrote a letter demanding that no Standard Oil contributions be used. A new element was ejected into the political imbroglio when Senator Penrose suggested to Senator Reed:

"There has come to my notice quite a lot of information leading to the thought that some three million dollars was underwritten by George W. Perkins and his associates to nominate Mr. Roosevelt for the Presidency

WILSON GETS DOWN TO WORK

Governor Spends the Day With His Books, Classifying Material for Future Speeches—Talks on Immigration.

Sea Girt, N. J., Auk. 22.—For the first time since he became a Presidential candidate Governor Woodrow Wilson stole away to his room in the upper floor of the Summer capital today and did what he termed "real work."

Having caught up his correspondence, the Governor delved into books and papers which he had at one time or another laid aside for careful perusal. He classified material for future speeches, and made an outline of the speech he will deliver at Williams' Grove, Pa., August 29th, the first address of the campaign outside of New Jersey.

L. E. Miller, editor of the Jewish Warheit, of New York, talked with the Governor about immigration today. The candidate explained his views fully and Mr. Miller said on leaving that he was pleased with the interview.

Governor Wilson will make his first speech in New York city when he attends a dollar dinner of the Working Men's Woodrow Wilson Club on September 4th.

Tomorrow Congressman Ransdell, of Louisiana, has an appointment with Governor Wilson. He is expected to talk over the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Waterways project.

LAWYER COLLAPSES

Dramatic Halt In the Detroit Aldermanic Graft Cases

Detroit, Mich., August 22.—The preliminary examination of Alderman Louis Brozo, of the 13th ward, charged with bribery, came to a dramatic and unexpected halt late today when Charles T. Wilkins, special assistant to Prosecuting Attorney Sheppard, suddenly collapsed unconscious in his chair.

In an instant Detective Walter J. Brennan, who had been testifying as to how he claims he trapped Brozo, was forgotten. The court room was in a turmoil. It was thought the attorney had sustained an apopleptic stroke and was dying. A physician soon restored consciousness to the stricken lawyer and when he recovered, Judge Stein adjourned the hearing until tomorrow afternoon.

It was stated that overwork and loss of sleep, added to recent illness, caused Mr. Wilkins to break down.

Detective Brennan testified that on July 12th he had telephoned Brozo to come to his office, on the advice of Glinnan, and that he talked with Brozo in the detective's office the next day. Alderman Glinnan, president of the common council, has already been bound over to stand trial for alleged bribery.

Brennan testified that during his conversation with Brozo he offered him $100 to make a speech at a council meeting in favor of closing a street for the benefit of the Wabash road and then voted for such an ordinance. Brozo, so Brennan testified, agreed to the proposition and called at the detective's office again on July 25th, when the latter claimed he paid the bribe.

Mexico City, Aug. 22.—Customs receipts of the fiscal year ended July 1, 1912, show a decrease of $2,000,000 under last year. An estimate of probable receipts of the coming year made on existing conditions indicated a further decrease of $1,500,000.

Loss to the government through the occupation of Juarez by the rebels was estimated at $300,000.

IN HONOR OF GENERAL BOOTH

Wheels of All Industries of Salvation Army Will be Stopped at Noon Thursday, When the Funeral Obsequies Are to Occur.

New York, Aug. 22.—At the stroke of noon next Thursday the wheels of all industries of the Salvation Army in America will be stopped in memory of General William Booth, whose funeral takes place at a corresponding hour in London.

For four hours, while the impressive services are being held and the cortege is passing through the streets of London, every member of the Salvation Army in this country will drop his task and engage in prayer. Orders to that effect were sent out today from the Army headquarters here.

Arrangements were also completed today for memorial services to be held simultaneously in every city and important town in the United States at 3 P. M., Sunday, September 1. One programme has been drawn up for all of the 870 posts of the Army in the United States and the various commanders have been requested to invite city and State officials and the ministers of all denominations and Christians generally to take part in the country-wide memorial. Addresses will be made by clergymen and prominent citizens, regardless of creed.

Body Lies in State.

London, Aug. 22.—General Booth's body was removed tonight from the evangelist's late residence at Hadley Wood to Congress Hall, Clapton, in the northeast section of London, where it will lie in state Friday and Saturday. The plans for the lying in state are the same as those carried out when the body of his wife, the "Army's Mother," lay in state.

The coffin rests in the same spot on a catafalque over which a huge canopy hangs. At the side of the coffin an oil portrait of his wife is displayed. Flags of all nations adorn the walls of the hall, representative of the vast extent of the Salvation Army's operations.

Throughout the day a stream of callers passed into the late general's modest residence at Hadley Wood.

Messages of condolence have been received from Queen Mother Alexandra and many other prominent persons throughout the world.

NO JOHNSON-JEANNETTE BOUT

Fight Called Off "For Betterment of The Sport"

New York, August 22.—The Johnson-Joe Jeannette boxing match set for September 25th at the St. Nicholas Athletic Club, was declared off this afternoon "for the betterment of the sport," by Jesse and Edward McMahon, the promoters of the bout. The McMahon brothers called off the match after a conference with the State Athletic Commission.

"There has been some adverse criticism about this match," Edward McMahon declared, "and the commissioners apparently do not want it to be held. That is why we are calling it off, for the betterment of the sport. The commissioners do not want Jack Johnson to appear in a match in New York city."

"The commission decided long ago," said Commissioner O'Neil, 'that Jackson would not be permitted to fight here. We believe now as we did then that the presence of Johnson in a ring contest in this State would be inimical to the best interests of boxing, the status of which has greatly improved under the Frawley law.

Bankers' Souvenir Dance Tonight. **

COUNTRY BANKERS IN ANNUAL MEET

East Carolina Association Convenes at Wrightsville Beach, N. C.

VISITORS WERE WELCOMED

Cordial Responses—Able Address by Maj. A. J. McKinnon and Presidents' Annual Report—Other Notes.

Featured by an unusually large attendance and a spirit of enthusiasm on the part of the members never before equalled, the sixth annual convention of the Country Bankers' Association of North Carolina convened last night at 8:30 o'clock in the ball room of the Oceanic Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, and after the opening session the delegates, many of whom are accompanied by members of their families, were entertained at a reception and dance.

The business session of the convention will be held this morning and will include a number of address by prominent bankers of the State, a general discussion of banks and banking topics, the reports of the committees and the election and installation of officers, following which adjournment will be taken. The afternoon will be at the disposal of the visitors for fishing, boating, or sailing parties, surf bathing, or any of the other modes of amusement and recreation of which the beach has so many to oqer. Tonight at Lumino the Tidewater Power Company will give a special favor dance in compliment to the bankers.

President Claude Gore, of Rockingham, called the convention to order and introduced Mr. Black, who offered the opening prayer. The president then introduced Mr. Chas. N. Evans, president of the Southern National Bank and the Atlantic Trust & Banking Company, of Wilmington, who delivered the address of welcome in his usual cordial and whole-hearted manner.

Mr. Evans stated that it gave him great pleasure and he highly appreciated the honor of being selected to fulfill so pleasant a duty as bidding the convention welcome to Wrightsville Beach and the Wilmington section. He declared that he had prepared no speech for the occasion, for he felt that if he could not bid his brother bankers welcome without committing a set speech to memory, or reading it from manuscript, he would hardly feel that his welcome was sincere.

That this section is the pride of the South Atlantic Coast, was the declaration of the speaker, and he stated that the banks of the section reflect the reasons why this is so in their prosperity. He happily pictured the many advantages of Wilmington from the point of climate, health, soil, natural resources, people etc., all of which, he said, are attracting the attention of the North and West as well as the South. He stated that the banks of Wilmington are stronger today than ever before, and the total banking resources of the city are now nearly $16,000,000. This condition is made possible, stated Mr. Evans, because of the excellent banks of the surrounding section, from which the Country Bankers' Association draws most of its membership. He referred to the fine management that marks the banks throughout the territory embraced in the membership of the association and spoke very interestingly of the great work they are doing in building up their sections of the State. All of them are known throughout the South as banks of solidity, safety, liberality, courtesy and last but not least strength.

Mr. Evans said that the banking business is more than a mere knowledge of figures, and the ability to keep books and fill out forms and check accounts. The man who knows how to help his neighbor, and who is willing to put his shoulder to the wheel and do all in his power to push forward his section as well as his institution is the man who is needed in the banking business.

In closing the speaker declared again that he was more than pleased to welcome the convention to Wrightsville Beach, and he expressed the hope that every member present would have a most enjoyable time. If there had been any oversight in providing entertainment features, he said, it was a slip of the head and not of the heart. He declared that the doors of both Wilmington and Wrightsville were thrown open to the visitors and invited them to consider themselves thoroughly at home.

Mr. W. B. Cooper, president of the American National Bank, of Wilmington, ably and wittily seconded Mr. Evans' welcome in a short talk.

Maj. A. J. McKinnon, vice president of the Bank of Maxton, was introduced by the president, and most heartily responded to the address of welcome. He thanked Mr. Evans and Mr. Cooper for their kind words and declared that it was useless to dwell upon such a pleasant subject, for the hospitality of Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach was too well known to require any comment. He said that the famed hospitality of North Carolina's chief city and seaport was known throughout this and other States, and

MAY BE TARIFF WAR.

Countervailing Duty Ordered on German Importation of Peas.

Washington, Aug. 22.—A countervailing duty on importations of wheat and rye flour and split peas from Germany was ordered by Secretary MacVeagh today because those commodities enjoy a bounty from the German government. This desisive step was necessary, officials declare, to protect the American split pea industry, which, it is added, is being destroyed by German competition, grown to formidable proportions by reason of the bounty.

While the move is fraught with grave possibilities of retaliation and a consequent tariff war between the United States and the German Empire, officials of the Treasury Department were inclined to take the hopeful view that Germany would repeal the bounty, as it is said not to be popular in that country.

The order, which becomes effective in 30 days, affects split peas primarily, as the importations of German flour are negligible. A great quantity of German peas enter the United States annually. Protests against the bounty have poured into the Treasury Department from Michigan, Minnesota, and the Northwest, where peas thrive. Germany, it is said, practically has driven American split peas out of the market in the Eastern States and is making inroads in the Central West and other parts of the country.

This action is taken under the Payne tariff law providing a countervailing duty equal to the bounty granted by a foreign country on any exportation. The German bounty on peas amounts to about 36 cents on each 165 pounds.

Guffey's wife left him a month ago and he called at his brother in-law's home to see her. He told her he had fired at her. The bullet went wild, Mrs. Floher opened fire on him from a window. Several shots were exchanged between the two. Guffey receiving six bullets Mrs. Floher was shot through the heart.

The opening contest was won in the ninth inning on Collin's single, a pass to Baker and Strunk's single. CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS

Congressman Faison Points Out Necessity for Help—Other Notes

Washington, D. C., August 20.

Dear Sir:—The legitimate expenses of the campaign which has been planned and which is deemed essential to success, are very large and while the outlook is bright, it can be made much brighter if the Democrats of the country will contribute a sufficient amount of money to properly carry out the plans made.

A Democratic administration will mean much to North Carolina, as Gov. Woodrow Wilson was practically reared in North Carolina, and his splendid Democratic administration will continue the Democrats in power for all time. It will be the means of gratifying the long cherished ambitions of a great many of our citizens. We will in many ways be beneficiaries of Democratic success in November. It is therefore right and just that we should contribute "our mite" toward making success possible, and the people, and not "Big Business," must furnish "the sinews of war."

The Democratic press of the country will be more directly responsible for victory than any other single agency. North Carolina is overwhelmingly Democratic and that fact generally restricts the usefulness of the North Carolina papers. But there is a great service that can be rendered; viz: raising campaign funds. Will you kindly begin at once a popular subscription, if you have not already done so? Please keep a record of the names of all contributors and send in with the remittances to the treasurer of the National Democratic Committee, so that due credit may be given.

Yours for a great Democratic victory and the complete annihilation of standpat Republicanism and Bull Moose Radicalism. I am,

Sincerely yours,
JNO. M. FAISON,

Geological Survey Postpones Work Being Turned to Private Account.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Because the United States Geological Survey was being used apparently to "boom a mining scheme," George Otis, director of the survey, has postponed indefinitely the work he had ordered J. M. Hill, one of the survey's men to do in Modoc county, California.

"Notices were being circulated," said Mr. Smith today, "to the effect that the Geological survey had made a second Cripple Creek gold find in the Hoag mining district, California. As a matter of fact a geological survey of a number of small mining camps in Nevada, and California, recently was ordered; but since the survey is made an involuntary accessory to a boom scheme, the work of the geologist in the Modoc district has been postponed."

CHICAGO GAINS ON NE...

Cubs Hit Boston Twirlers Lot and Win the Opening Of the Series ...

Chicago, August 22.—Chicago hit three of Boston's pitchers all over the field today and won the opening game of the series 17 to 5. Chicago's victory coupled with New York's evenbreak with Pittsburg today enabled the locals to gain half a game on the leaders. The margin between the two teams is now four games.

The visitors' pitchers possessed nothing today but wildness and the slaughter continued throughout the day. Cheney on the other hand, did not let up until towards the close of the contest when the Bostonians made their scores.

Extra base hits, daring base running and double plays were features of the game.

Smith, after a short chase, and is being held at police headquarters to answer a charge of attempting to break into the store of Mr. John Farrow, at Ninth and Castle streets. The witness against the negro will be Mr. Farrow himself. Mr. Farrow was in his store, which was closed, when his attention was attracted by a noise as if someone trying to break in. He went to the door and saw a negro running. He gave chase. The officers came up in a few minutes and the man was captured, being identified as Hill.

KID M'COY RELEASED

American Boxer Freed from Custody In London

London, Aug. 22.—"Kid McKoy" (Norman Selby), the American boxer, was discharged from custody today. He was arrested July 26 on a provisional extradition warrant charging him with larceny alleged to have been committed at Ostend. The proceedings were taken at the instigation of the Belgian legation.

McCoy's counsel said it was most extraordinary that McCoy should have been arrested on the unsworn statement of an intoxicated woman who, when she became sober, denounced her own narrative.

GIANTS WINS AND LOSES

The Giants Split a Double Bill With Pittsburg in Two Hot Games—Mathewson Loses and Rube Marquard Wins.

Pittsburg, Aug. 22.—Pittsburg won the first of a double-header by 3 to 2, and New York the second by 8 to 6. Pittsburg hit Mathewson opportunely and won the first game, although the New York team made a grand finish and came near gaining the victory. Wagner was the star of the game, getting two singles and a double and scoring two runs.

In the second game the New York team had two batting rallies, one at the start and the other at the finish. They hit the home team safely 16 times for total of 24 bases. During a lull in their batting Pittsburg tied the score by hitting Marquard vigorously in the seventh inning. In the next inning, however, the Giants had their second batting rally, getting two single, a double and a triple off Warner. This gave them three runs and the game. Wagner made a home run in the ninth.

JOHN J. PERRY ASSAULTED.

Wealthy Lumberman Shot and Beaten on Way to His Mill.

Seaford, Del., Aug. 22.—Shot and beaten into insensibility, John J. Perary, a wealthy lumberman and head of the Houston, Perry Manufacturing Company was found in his automobile along the roadside not far from nis mill near here today. It is supposed that robbery was the motive for the crime, although Mr. Perry has not regained sufficient consciousness to tell anything. The supposition is that Perry was driving along to the mill and was attacked from behind as the back of his head is badly chushed and holes were found in the back curtain of the machine. Doctors say his skull is fractured and a bullet wound was found in the back of his head. State authorities, assisted by local police, are scouring this section of the country for the assailants.

Mr. Perry is about 50 years old and has been engaged in the lumber business for the last 30 years, operating plants in Delaware, Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina.

SLATON WON EASILY

Polled Biggest Majority In the History Of Georgia

Atlanta, Ga., August 22.—Returns today from almost every county in the State indicate that John M. Slaton was nominated for Governor in yesterday's Democratic State primary by the largest majority in the history of Georgia. It is possible that this popular vote will be near 100,000 out of about 150,000 cast.

Contrary to early reports, late returns this afternoon showed that Representative Charles L. Bartlett had been re-elected from the Sixth Congressional district by a plurality of 92, four counties, Crawford, Jasper, Jones and Bibb with a majority of units, being credited to him. J. W. Wise, one of his opponents, carried the remaining counties in the district while John Cooper carried none.

Returns canvassed up to tonight left the race for the office of State Commissioner of Agriculture still in doubt and it is possible that official returns may be necessary to determine the winner. James D. Price was leading, according to today's returns with J. J. Brown and A. O. Blalock following in order.

Owing to the length of the ballot it is probable that complete unofficial returns will not be available until tomorrow.

Official returns received tonight show that Colonel Randall Walker has received the Congressional nomination in the 11th district, defeating Judge T. Parker, of Waycross.

Although early returns indicated the defeat of Nash R. Broyles for judge of the State Court of Appeals, official returns show that he has defeated Judge J. R. Pottle, of Early, by a large majority.

Confederate Veteran Passes—Supreme Court Convenes—Charters Issued—An Aggressive Campaign—Other News

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., August 22.—M. N. T. Shore, Confederate veteran, who was for forty years janitor of the famous old Home Moravian church, Salem, N. C., died last night at the Soldier's Home here and his remains were carried to Winston-Salem this morning for interment. He volunteered for the Confederate service from Forsyth county, serving in the 33rd regiment. He was 74 years old and came to the Home only three weeks ago. He recently lost his wife and daughter and his home life being broken up necessitated his removal to the Soldier's Home.

There are 24 appeals from the First Judicial district scheduled for argument next week, the Supreme Court to call this calendar Tuesday morning. The court convenes Monday but will devote the first day to the examination of applicants for license to practice law.

Major W. A. Graham, commissioner of agriculture, just back from his plantation in Lincoln county says crops in his section are suffering considerably for rain but that if it rains within a week the damage from drought will not be very serious. He says that in the Charlotte section the crops are very good, and that in returning to Raleigh he found crop conditions very good from Greensboro west but badly parched from Greensboro eastward to Cary; 12 miles beyond Raleigh. Major Graham has been home for several weeks and had a family reunion while there, all his grandchildren being at home except one.

Mr. James McKee Myatt, son of Mr. W. A. Myatt, prominent merchant of Raleigh, died at the Myatt home on Blount street this morning, aged 19 years. He had been quite ill for sometime of tuberculosis of the lungs. He was a most promising young man, quite popular among his fellows. The funeral will be held Friday.

Jake Graves, a white man, was committed to the penitentiary today from Cherokee county, to serve 18 years for manslaughter. He was committed by Deputy Sheriff G. W. Hall, of Cherokee county.

State Chairman Chas. A. Webb, who has just opened up State headquarters here for the impending Democratic campaign, is adjusting appointments for the speech-making features of the campaign and experienced campaigners are to go into every quarter of the State preaching the doctrine of Democracy in a campaign that Chairman Webb confidently predicts will terminate in a 75,000 majority for Democracy. Already a number of speeches have been made by Hon. Francis T. Winston and others but the campaign really opens tomorrow with the speeches by Hon. Locke Craig, candidate for Governor, and Congressman Heflin, of Alabama, at Laurinburg, an occasion that is being pulled off on a scale which will make it a feature for that entire section of the State. Then on August 31st Mr. Craig will be the principal speaker for a big barbecue at Weaverville, Buncombe county. Presidential Elector G. Ellis Gardner is designated as a speaker for a political rally at Spruce Pine, Mitchell county, August 31st. Hon. Francis T. Winston is to be at Burnsville September 2nd. He is a Presidential elector. Mr. Craig is to be at Asheboro September 7th. Democratic headquarters in Yarborough Hotel will be a busy place from now on.

APOLOGY ACCEPTED.

Senator Simmons Will Not Press Libel Suit Against Shelby Paper.

Shelby, Aug. 21.—Clyde R. Hoey of the law firm of Ryburn & Hoey was interviewed today with reference to what disposition had been made of the contemplated libel suits to be instituted against The Highlander newspaper and their correspondent, "Corn Cracker," because of the alleged libelous matter published in that newspaper against Senator Simmons.

Mr. Hoey stated that Senator Simmons had employed his law firm to represent him in the matter and he had made a thorough investigation and had advised the Senator, in view of the complete apology and retraction made by Editor DePriest, in which he repudiated the libelous article and explained and apologized for its publication, and that Corn Cracker, before any knowledge on his part of the action taken by Senator Simmons in the premises, had written an article withdrawing the libelous charge and explaining that he did not intend to charge that Senator Simmons had been influenced improperly in the votes which he had cast in the Senate, had advised Senator Simmons not to pursue the matter further, since the parties concerned had made due amends and explanations.

Senator Simmons has agreed to this course and there will be no further proceeding in the case. Senator Simmons' friends are satisfied with the retractions and explanations and feel that there is no occasion to pursue the matter further.

DOINGS AT DUNN.

Street Improvements — Senatorial Convention—Other News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Dunn, N. C., Aug. 22.—The city fathers, at an adjourned meeting last night, passed an ordinance requiring all wooden shelters in front of stores on Broad street moved, and that property owners, within the fire district, on Main, Edgerton and Railroad streets build concrete sidewalks ten feet wide. The contract has already been let for some of this work and the material is being placed.

The Senatorial convention held here Tuesday was attended by prominent business men and merchants, and lawyers, of course, from all over the district. Sampson brought a strong delegation to back Col. Peterson. It seems that Sampson has undergone her term of servitude and the dawn is breaking for Democracy after many years of almost complete annihilation at the hands of the rep-pop forces Among those present were Attorneys Faison, Graham, Whitfield and H. A. Grady, who says that he has just returned from Europe, and that all the foreign countries are for Wilson.

Lee county which was added to the 14th district by the last General Assembly, was represented by an enthusiastic delegation with a resolution asking that the counties of Sampson, Harnett and Lee rotate in sending a senator, which resolution was adopted after much discussion and debating.

The "state of Johnston," had a strong delegation, headed by Judge Brooks, boosting their candidate, O. A. Barbour. They are promising a majority of over 1,000 for Democracy in Johnston in November.

The Fall session of Buie's Creek Academy will open Tuesday. Prof. J. A. Campbell is looking forward to a larger attendance than usual. This school has grown very rapidly, and is a decided factor in the educational work of the State.

The Baptist Sunday School carried a large crowd to Fuquay Springs on their annual picnic yesterday.

Mr. J. D. Barnes, president of the Dunn Oil Mills Co., has just returned from a visit to relatives at Greensboro and Old Trinity.

Rev. A. R. McQueen, the Presbyterian minister here, has rented a home and, his sister, Miss Margaret will keep house for him. It was rumored at first that he was to be married but madam rumor seems to be wrong this time. The parson seems to be a confirmed bachelor, and there seems to be no hope of convincing him of the error of his way.

Rev. J. H. Shore left this week for a two weeks vacation with his family who are spending the Summer at Roxboro. Rev. J. A. Long will return next week from the western part of the State, where has been spending his vacation. Mr. J. W. Whitehead, agent for the A. C. L. here, accompanied by Messrs. C. L. Wilson are spending some time at Niagara Falls and Atlantic City.

COAST LINE FOLDER.

Rocky Mount Pleased—Negro Found Dead—Electric Wire Shock.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., Aug. 22.—Mr. R. B. Davis, Jr., president of the Chamber of Commerce, has just received from Passenger Traffic Manager W. J. Craig, of the Atlantic Coast Line, one of the company's August folders, which contains on the back cover two handsome cuts or photographs one being the Rocky Mount passenger station and office building and one of the new Y. M. C. A. at this point. In addition to this the cover contains interesting statistics and information concernng the growth and prosperty of Rocky Mount and the counties of Edgecomber and Nash. Sixty thousand of these folders are distributed North and West.

News of a brutal murder in Nash, about 14 miles from Nashville was received here this morning. It seems that Lieutenant Hawkins, a negro employed on the farm of Mr. Iredell Williams, was found dead with his body literally cut to pieces with knife wounds in Mr. Iredell's pasture yesterday morning. There were no clues as to the identity of his assailants. The body showed signs of having lain in the pasture all the night previous and it is thought that such is the case as he disappeared from his home early the night before. The coroner and deputy sheriff from Nashville went to the scene and an inquest was held, following which Paul Powell and Oscar Eatman, negroes, who live in the neighborhood, were placed under arrest. The alleged murderers were brought to Nashville last night and placed in jail. Both protest their innocence of the crime but the authorities claim that they have strong evidence against them.

Mr. T. B. Royall, an employee of the Pepsi Cola plant in this city, suffered a painful though not serious injuhy yesterday when he received an electric shock and fell to the floor, his head striking a valve, cutting the scalp, so as to necessitate the taking of three stitches in his head. Mr. Royall went to turn on one of the lights in the plant on which there was a crossed wire. It was thought at first that his injury was serious. He was placed in a passing automobile and rushed to the office of Dr. I. P. Battle who took the three necessary stitches.

FOR A FINAL TEST.

Shelby, Aug. 21.—In Philadelphia today the Cade typesetting machine is undergoing a final test and demonstration. A number of stockholders left yesterday morning, taking advantage of the reduced rates to Atlantic City and today is the date set by the inventor, who has spent most of his time with the builders, A. Nache and Son, for the test. The last word from Mr. Cade to J. H. Quinn, secretary of the Cade Manufacturing Company, was in the form of a telegram reading as follows: "I am certain of the machine now and so may you be." J. H. Quinn, John F. Schenck, J. L. Baber, E. B. Hamrick, C. J. Hamrick, Yates Hamrick, and J. R. Dover of this place, J. C. Fowler and others from Statesville and possibly two or three from Charlotte made the trip and will be at the final test in the Philadelphia shop today.

Kinston, N. C., Aug. 22.—In superior court here, Charles Randolph, 13 years of age, was arrainged for the killing of Peary Stallings, several years older, and a verdict of manslaughter was entered by agreement. Judge Carter heard the evidence in the case for his guidance in rendering judgment. Sentence was not passed immediately, but it is practically certain that young Randolph will be sent to a reformatory for a term of years. The crime was committed on Queen street in this city several months ago, the lad stabbing Stallings after fisticuffs resulting fro a boyish altercation. Both were prominently connected, and the slaying created a sensation which spread throughout the town, at the time. A great deal of sympathy has been manifested toward the youthful victim of his own indiscretion.

The most interesting development in local politics recently came about wth the statement to the Republicans of the county by County Chairman James M. Mewborn, that he would be "delighted" to support Mr. Roosevelt and that "under no circumstances" would he vote for Taft. Mr. Mewborn says that since the state chairman and executive committee of the Republicans have decided that none but supporters of Mr. Taft are entitled to be seated as delegates in the coming Charlotte convention, they will probably adopt the same tactics as were used in Chicago, and that were ninety per cent of the North Carolina Republicans for Roosevelt, they could avail nothing against the steam roller methods which are sure to be inaugurated.

A quiet early morning marriage, marked by its simplicity, was celebrated at 6:45 A. M., in the First Baptist church here, when Mr. Thos. W. Elliott, of Edenton, and Miss Nina Brown, of Kinston, were united by Rev. C. W. Blanchard, in the presence of only a few relatives and friends who had been apprised of the event.

JACKSONVILLE NEWS

Teachers' Institute In Session—Dr. Stiles Lectures—Other Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Jacksonville, N. C., August 22.—Jacksonville presents a very gay and classical appearance here this week, and will continue to be unusually lively so long as the county teachers remain in town. Last Monday morning the institute opened. Prof. R. H. Bachman, superintendent of the public schools of Edenton, is conducting the institute. Miss Louise Lunn, of Wilkesboro, has charge of the instruction in primary methods. The attendance of the teachers is good. There are about sixty of them here.

No feature of the institute will likely be remembered longer or be, in itself, more valuable, than an address delivered to the teachers this morning by Dr. Charles W. Stiles. Dr. Stiles has been long laboring for the betterment of public health, and is perhaps better informed along the line of mortality statistics and general health and sanitary conditions than any other man in the country. He presents the results of his experience, observation and thought in the shape of a strong and direct appeal to all to lend a hand in doing what should be done to lessen the necessary mortality from preventable diseases.

He showed, in his address today, that the high death rate among women and children indicates much pain and a great unnecessary loss. In the South about twenty per cent of the babies die before they are a year old. This represents, not alone the loss of the babies, but a vast amount of energy and pain, which is required in the gestation and birth. Practically all of this percentage of the children born could be saved by the proper regulation of conception and practical means of sanitation.

DETECTIVES ARE ARRESTED.

Took Prisoner Out of Asheville Jail for Sweating Process.—Hearing.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 22.—W. B. Thompson, H. Scott and T. Watts, railroad detectives, were brought into superior court here this afternoon on Judge Lane's bench warrant on a charge that they had taken from the county jail without judicial order E. F. Carr, express messenger whose car was robbed near Biltmore, a few nights ago. Carr being held on suspicion. A hearing was deferred until tomorrow morning but W. G. Fortune, Carr's attorney, told the court he supposed they had taken his client out to put him through a sweating process. They had the prisoner in a hotel and kept him there several hours. A Sheriff's deputy let the man in jail in the jailors' absence.

It's awfully hard for the average man to keep his yellow streak under cover.

Friday, August 23, 1912.

President Taft's manager is looking for a campaign slogan. Might try "Vote for the Veto Victim."

Attorney General Wickersham pulled down the house that Roosevelt built, even if it caught all the trust busters as it collapsed.

A doctor advises: "Drink plenty of lemonade in hot weather." The prescription comes in all right in a country where we have to put up with lemonade anyhow.

Col. Bryan is going into the campaign for Wilson, and is going to be allowed to choose his own route. He ought to avoid going into territory where he is now regarded as a reactionary by the wildest of the progressives.

Having seen the picture of Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, a Wilson spellbinder in New York, we again renew our allegiance to the schoolmaster. Her pictures are all that could be expected, and, more than that, she is a millionaire.

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, of New York, worth millions, does her own marketing. She can afford to do it. She doesn't have to do the cooking, the ironing and the housekeeping. As a general thing, the ladies have so much to do at home they cannot spare the time to go to market.

The treasurers of the campaign committees and the great host of "plain people" had better keep their eyes skinned for counterfeit dollar bills that detectives say is "just like real money." They are numbered V16, 959, 121 and V361, 591, 216. Newspaper men should be very careful when they take in a few dollars.

Who originated the "howl down" in South Carolina? The denial of free speech in that State has slopped over into the present Democratic primary for the gubernatorial nomination. A people are in bad shape when they won't give respectful attention to speakers who wish to discuss important and serious matters.

Speaking about the claims of Taft and Roosevelt as to trust busting, reference to Bradstreet's and Dunn's will show that the rating of the trusts they busted is better than it ever was. No man so doubts the solvency of any trust that he would make them a shipment C. O. D. The trusts are still doing business at the same old stand, with only a slight alteration in the sign.

The South Atlantic Cone Johnson League repudiates the sordid purpose of the Columbia State in its efforts to pull his leg for a few Texas watermelons. Anyhow, Texas watermelons have the reputation of being descendants of the gourd family, but it might be a good idea for the Hon. Cone to send all the members of the league a few melons that they may refute this possible slander on the Texas product. It will require only a carload and they can be sent in a refrigerator car.

Don't believe it. The press of North Carolina has not been "bought up" by anybody. Those who kindly send things to the editors will find them in need of about everything that makes an editor glad. If the editors were to sell out for what they are worth every one of them would wear diamonds and dash around in piano-built autos. No subscriber should hold back money on his subscription under the hallucination that any editor in North Carolina has gotten to be insolently rich during this campaign. The editors are on the ob and wearing the same old clothes.

GLASS HOUSE DUEL.

It is strange that people who live in glass houses continue to throw stones in violation of the ancient and often repeated injunction against taking such a risk. Ex-President Roosevelt and President Taft have both recklessly infracted the rule, and have pelted each other unmercifully in the presence of 7,000,000 Democrats and about 3,000,000 others who are turning their faces towards the Democracy because they have been made witnesses of several spectacles that should have been pulled off behind the curtain.

The latest spectacle which we have been called upon to witness is a glass house duel over the matter of busting the trusts. A few days ago the Bull Moose shied a kiln of bricks at Attorney General Wickersham and President Taft and belittled the trust busting record of the administration. Teddy suspected that no trusts have been busted worth a cent, and while looking for evidence that some trust had really been crushed and put out of business by President Taft he discovered that the stocks of alleged busted trusts really had increased in value since they had been busted.

The Bull Moose took that as evidence that no trust whatever has been busted by Taft and railed out upon the Republican President, berating him for making false claims to deceive the people. The Third Termer had forgotten that he was living in a glass house himself, but he was and it was battered by the same stone which he threw at the Taft administration.

Attorney General Wickersham made the throw for Taft and it hit Teddy's glass house amidships, not to say with a dull thud. This impressive incident must not be overlooked. It happened last Tuesday, when Taft's Attorney General gave out an official statement which ought to make the Ex-President sit up and take notice. He took issue with Col. Roosevelt's declaration Monday night making great bones of the manner in which Mr. Wickersham brought the Standard Oil Company and the Tobacco Trust to book, not so much as damaging them the least bit but so strengthening the position of these trusts and establishing their invulnerability that the shares of both rapidly rose in value after they had been busted. Mr. Wickersham says:

"Mr. Roosevelt's statement that these decrees have been received with satisfaction by the trusts—either straight trusts of "crooked" trusts—is about as truthful as it would be to say that a man who was threatened with the loss of both his legs, received with satisfaction the information that only one was to come off. If the test of the Sherman law is to the market prices of the stocks of the distributed concerns after a decree of disintegration, what conclusion would be drawn from the facts in the Northern Securities, the sole and only complete accomplishment under the Sherman law during the Roosevelt administration? As a matter of fact the market prices of the stocks of both the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern Railroad companies increased greatly after the distribution which followed the decision of the Supreme Court in that case, and the Union Pacific interests after such dissolution sold the Northern Pacific shares which they received at a profit of about $63,000,00—according to the testimony in the government's suit against the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific companies."

The Attorney General surely fired a hot shot. We have it from him, and he knows the record, that Roosevelt only busted one combination and busted it no more effectually than Taft has busted several. In other words the stock of the concern busted by Roosevelt also increased marvelously in value. The Third Termer had his own shot fired back at him, and the public should not fail to take notice that both sides have proved their case by the same argument. They were both in the same boat and it has been rocked so completely that both sides went down with it.

Wickersham's defense was to prove on the Roosevelt administration the same things which Roosevelt proved on the Taft administration. Both have the records to draw on each other and it is no defense for either that one did not bust a trust any better than the other.

We refuse to entertain the serious proposition that either of these sham trust busters shall be trusted any longer with a problem which seriously burdens the masses who are struggling against the high cost of living.

THE TROUBLE-BREEDERS

Democrats who are recklessly "attacking" eachother ought to reflect upon what has happened to the Republican party because men seeking their own personal advantage and glory are "attacking" eachother. We must not overlook the fact that a party generally gets the blame for the mistakes or wrongs committed by its representative servants, and when they give eachother away they simply make trouble for their party. We call to witness the G. O. P. which today is being prodded and goarded on account of the administrations of both Roosevelt and Taft.

The politician who makes "charges" upon flimsy pretexts, based upon motives involving his own selfish aims and ambitions, ought to be regarded as a disorganizer instead of a leader. Nine times out of ten when charges are made against eachother by politicians two minutes investigation will reveal the fact that it is self-seekers who are breeding trouble for their party. Where self is concerned and personal advantage is the motive of attack, "charges" ought to be taken with a quart of salt. Wherefore, loyal party men ought to have little patience with men who create divisions and factions in promoting their own individual interests. Very few patriots come forth to stop up a party for its good, and in most instances if selfishness were not concerned a certain class of politicians would be as mum as the unspeakable Sphinx.

Look out for the fellow who "starts something." Take a day off to inquire whether or not his motive is a purpose to serve his individual ends and score achievements for himself. Watch the man who throws his hat in the ring, and who throws rocks and flings mud. It does not take a close search to find an axe that he is bent upon grinding for himself.

Verily, verily, in our meanderings through this vale of tears, we have noticed that when a politician starts into prize another loose from his job, he hopes to create a vacancy which he is anxious to fill himself. It is hard to get away from the idea that men who make trouble for self-advancement are demagogues, pure and simple. The man to follow is the one who can tote his own skillet and point to his own achievements as his claim upon public support and approbation. Men like that can afford to state their own case and leave it to the people to decide between them as to their ability and worthiness to be honored by the people. The so-called "hot fights" between candidates arouse naught but prejudice and passion. No party which is set by the ears is capable of making a calm decision about men or measures, and as proof of it we point to the bitter dissention and absolute disruption of the party which for fifty years has permitted special interests to exploit the people.

From the day that Roosevelt threw his hat in the ring and lit in to knock 'em through the ropes, we foresaw that the jig was up with the Republican party. When the contest thickened between Blackgum and Thunder, we knew it was a matter of impossibility for the average Republican to work his equilibrator and come to a calm conclusion in the midst of "confusion worse confounded."

In heated contests men get "het up." They lose their heads and more of them are found to be in possession of a larger stock of prejudice than common sense. Crack open the noggin of thousands of Republicans in the midst of this rucus between Third Term Teddy and Veto Bill, and watch the bats fly forth into the circumambient air.

After the mix-ups in this campaign many a Republican and not a few Democrats will seek a secluded place behind the barn and wish for an extra pair of legs with which to give themselves a kicking.

The best advice we can give is to fly low and work the equilibrator. At the same time, why not keep cool? Why should men jump into the ring when all sorts of men come down the pike and throw in their last year's hats?

DANGER OF OVERCONFIDENCE

In an interview a few days ago Senator Gore, of Oklahoma, warned Democrats of the danger of overconfidence when he emphasized the importance of avoiding two blunders, namely, "overestimating your own strength" and the other that of "underestimating the strength of your opponent."

The New Orleans States is confident that the tide of popular support is running strongly to the Democrats, but it joins Senator Gore in saying that "for all that, it would be most unwise not to keep the campaign work going at full blast." Well, that is good advice, but we are obliged to feel like it is going to be unanimous, when a Pennsylvanian declares that the Keystone State will be in the Wilson column.

The Baltimore Evening Sun comes along with a man, who, after having been on a trip through New Jersey, declares he never met a man who was going to vote for Roosevelt or Taft. Of course, that sounds mighty good, but the traveler in New Jersey might have struck up with the crowd at a Democratic barbecue.

We believe, anyway, that everything is coming our way, and we are disposed to agree that it does look as Mr. Andrew Gray, of Delaware, puts it, that "Woodrow Wilson's election is almost a mathematical certainty." At the same time, let us figure on other eventualities, for there is yet three months of campaigning to be done.

Taft refuses to take the stump, but he will have to take the count.

In his "Call of the Progressive Party," Mr. James N. Williamson, Jr., of Burlington, National committeeman and chairman of the State Bull Moose committee, declared that "the Progressive Party, has not been organized to promote Col. Roosevelt's or any other man's ambitions." Nevertheless, if it had not been for Teddy, the Progressives would now be privates in the rear rank of Republicanism. Everybody knows that if the Third Termer were to go off and hide, the Progressive Party would be like a corporal's guard without the corporal.

...ENT COMMENT.

...that makes a fair per... on stock many times ...dly seem to be in ...m the government.

...ifornians are boosting Hiram Johnson to lead the Progressive party in 1916, but we believe conditions will have so changed by that time that the Rooseveltians will nominate as their ticket, Hon. Harry Thaw and Hon. John Armstrong Chaloner.

We enjoy the enthusiasm of Young Harker, the Kitchinesque editor of The Maxton Scottish Chief. He is amiable and gentlemanly in his discussions, and his paper bubbles over with good humor, especially when a Kitchin farmer happens to lay a watermelon on his table. It is one paper we can always pick up with the assurance of finding no display of rancor.—Charlotte Observer.

A man dressed in pajama-like garments of white, with long hair and beard trained like a cheap imitation of the Holy Christ, has been attracting some attention by his harangues on the streets of the city during the past few nights. The Chronicle is liberal and believes in freedom of thought and expression, but when a fakir like this comes into the community and declares that ministers of the gospel are infidels and hypocrites and brings the Christian into disrepute, the thing has gone a little too far. The man should be declared a public nuisance and either sent to the roads or made to drive on.—Charlotte Chronicle.

At Walhalla Judge Jones gave an example of the kind of political discussion the campaign meetings are intended to promote. He addressed himself to questions of administration solely, outlining his hopes and purposes for the State whose chief magistrate he is as certain to be as that he was for long its chief lawgiver. He did not so much as mention his opponent's name nor refer to his administration, with its dark record of opportunity abused and law set at naught. Governor Blease's response was a characteristically audacious assault upon Judge Jones and an accusation that the man who had just shown a desire and an ability to turn for a moment from the ugly past to the promising and dutiful future, had conducted the nastiest campaign since the days of Chamberlain. It is impossible to get away from Blease and Bleaseism in this contest, however grateful such a departure would be to all decent men.—Charleston Post.

In the beginning it is well to get to the bed-rock truth that the Bull Moose and Taft followers are only variations of the same old crowd of Republicans, nothing more, nothing less, and in North Carolina this truth is right within our gates and is apparent to even those who stumble along. It is merely a split in the old crowd that is causing the hub-bub, and the cause is the scramble for pie, even with it vanishing into the dim and murky future. North Carolina has well learned the crowd and its evident ear marks, so it is not concerned as to any result, for it will return the tried and true Democracy to power, and add its vote to the electoral college majority for Woodrow Wilson. Its interest in the mix-up being that only of the curious onlooker at a free-for-all-fight in which there is loud noise, much caterwauling, rip-snorting, cussing, and a public farmily wash of the sadly soiled linen of Republicanism. The wash is thrust out into the front street and it is impossible to avoid seeing it, for it dangles in full view and is blown about by every passing breeze.—Raleigh News.

CONGRESS RUSHES WORK

Four Great Supply Bills Almost Completed—Adjournment Saturday

Washington, August 22.—With celerity that hitherto has not marked the session, Congress today rushed toward completion four great supply bills and tonight looks forward confidently for adjournment on Saturday. Conferees on the Sundry Civil, Indian, Army and Postoffice appropriation measures, reached agreements on those bills today. The Legislative, Idian and Sundry Civil measures were passed by the Senate. The General Deficiency bill, the last of the big supply measures to be taken up, was reported in the Senate and the ways greased for its consideration.

The House took no action on the appropriation legislation further than to order all of the conference reports printed in the record, so that prompt action could be had tomorrow. Unlike the Senate's quick work, by which the three bills passed were rushed through in less than 10 minutes, the House is expected to develop sharp clashes on both the Sundry Civil and the Indian bills when they are reported. Leaders on both sides, however, did not regard these differences tonight as unreconcilable, and before adjournment tomorrow night, it is believed the legislative decks will be comparatively clear.

A fight developed in the Senate on the Army bill, over the proposed seven year term of enlistment. The Army measure and the Postoffice appropriation bill were finally carried over until tomorrow's session.

Radical changes in the Postal Service were provided for by the House and Senate conferees on the Postoffice bill. The Bourne parcel post system was adopted for the present, including the Oregon Senator's ideas as to zones, distances and rates. The Postmaster General, however, was empowered, with the consent of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, to change the rates, zones and articles admitted to the post at any time. A joint committee of six was authorized to study the working of the system.

The Simmons' good roads provision was adopted. This appropriates $500,000 for experimental road construction with a joint committee to study the proposition. The Senate provision, requiring newspapers to publish semi-annually a list of stockholders was adopted and another provision added, to require every daily newsparer to print a statement of its average daily circulation.

Of course, you feel bad when the other fellow gets what you want, but think how good it makes him feel.

In leap year a girl may get him for the asking; in other years she may get him without the trouble of asking.

JUDGE CLARK AT BURGAW.

Spoke to Pender Voters—Death of Mrs. Motte—Other News Notes.

(By Long Distance Telephone.)

Burgaw, N. C., Aug. 22.—Judge Walter Clark, candidate for the United States Senate, addressed not a large but a very appreciative audience in the court house here this afternoon, having been presented by Mr. A. H. Paddison. He spoke for an hour and a half and made a very favorable impression upon his hearers. He covered his platform as recently announced and paid his respects to the public records of both his opponents, referring to Simmons' sins of commission and those of Kitchin rather as sins of omission.

Mrs. Leon L. Motte, wife of one of the editors of the Pender Chronicle, died here late this afternoon after a continued illness with typhoid fever. She was a native of Fayetteville and of the immediate family is survived only by her husband, who has the tenderest sympathy of all. The funeral and interment will take place here tomorrow.

A teachers' institute is in session here this week and is being well attended—A wind and rain storm of considerable violence passed over Burgaw this evening, being one of several which have done much damage to crops during the past week or ten days—The Pender Telephone Co., is extending its lines through the Stag Park section of the county. The line has now reached eight miles and will be shortly completed.

NEW SHORTHAND RECORD

New York Police Reporter Writes 278 Words a Minute

New York, August 22.—All world's records for shorthand speed were broken here today when Nathan Behrin, official stenographer of the New York Supreme Court and formerly the reporter at police headquarters, wrote an average of 278 words a minute for five consecutive minutes. The previous world's record was 269 words a minute.

Behrin also made a new world's record for accuracy, having a percentage of 97 3-10. He was awarded a silver cup. John D. Carson, of Chicago, was second and Charles L. Swem, of New York, third.

Twenty-one writers entered the contest, but the test was so severe that only five qualified. The dictation matter consisted of a lecture, a charge to a jury and court testimony, the rate of speed being respectively 200, 250 and 280 words a minute. The contest was conducted under the direction of the National Shorthand Reporters' Association, whose annual convention is being held here.

APPLICATION OF SALARY PLAN

Figures Show Big Saving to the County In Guilford—Many Counties Are Expected to Abolish Fee System

In view of the fact that an effort probably will be made at the next Legislature to have the county officers of New Hanover placed on a salary instead of fee basis, the following from yesterday's Greensboro Daily News, giving figures as to the result of the salary system in Guilford county, will be read with interest here:

"W. C. Boren, chairman of the Guilford county Board of County Commissioners who returned Saturday night with other members of the board from Wrightsville Beach where the County Commissioners of the State held their fourth convention, stated yesterday afternoon that he believed after the next Legislature 40 per cent of the counties of the State would have adopted a salary bill for their county officials. He said that at the recent meeting the subject was heartily discussed and that much interest was manifested by the Commissioners present. Fifty counties were represented with 85 Commissioners.

"Mr. Boren addressed the convention on the salary bill as it has worked in Guilford county, and Guilford was able to report a most satisfactory application of Gordon act. From the figures it was shown that a balance of $12,771.92 had resulted, $2,605.42 had been distributed to the school fund, and $10,166.50 to the county road fund. The figures submitted were from the exhibit of December, 1911, and were as follows:

"Receipts: Treasurer's commission, $5,052.38; sheriff's commission, $9,703.94; register of deed's fees collected, $5,681.85; clerk of the court fees collected, $5,172.05; jail fees collected or payable to sheriff under fee system, $2,462.50, making a total receipts of $28,072.72. The disbursements were: Treasurer's salary (no other allowance), $1,200; sheriff's salary, $2,500; sheriff's clerks, $1,000; register of deed's salary, $2,283.96; register of deeds clerk $1,500; clerk of the court salary, $2,250; clerk of the court's clerks, $1,505; entire expenses of the jail, $2,245.90; special auditing $240; premiums on officers' bonds, $575.95, making a total of disbursements of $15,300.80.

"In giving these figures Mr. Boren said the county, which had always had good officers under the fee system, had good officers under the salary system. He stated that a State bill would hardly be prepared, but that every county must have its own bill.

"Another important matter discussed by the Commissioners, but on which no definite action was taken, was that of making the County Commissioners a legislative body, just as the Board of Commissioners of Greensboro is a legislative body. This, he said, is a question of much importance to every county, and with the county boards having authority to make local laws suitable to the conditions they are to govern they would be in a position to more effectively give the people a better government. A great many of the laws passed by the Legislature do not accurately fit the needs they are designed for. The county board, being more familiar than any other body of people with the county affairs, can better conduct the county business if granted the privilege of making certain laws needed."

BUILDING ON W., B. & S. ROAD

Improvements Being Made In Small Towns Along the Line

(Southport News.)

To any one observant, making occasional trips over the W., B. & S. Railroad, the increased industrial activities and improvements in the small towns along the road must be astonishing and pleasing, especially so when one considers that the railroad has not been in operation two months.

At Lanvale particularly, the improvements are most pronounced. There is a new school house just completed, and many new houses, and they are turning out lumber there in large quantities.

Bolivia is a close second and may be expected to lead the others in new buildings, if she keeps on at the rate she is now moving.

Lumber mills are working to their full capacity, and increasing their facilities. New mills are being erected. Houses are going up all along the line, and an air of booming business prevails.

The railroad has a force of men at work on the roadbed to raise the grade above the water line of Spring and Fall floods. All work shows system, and a plan evolved to be worked out as rapidly as possible toward making the W., B. & S. Railroad capable of answering to any great demands that may be made. One or more passenger coaches have been ordered. It is to be hoped that in the near future Southport may have a morning train in and an evening train out. So much for the railroad.

Now comes the possibility of at last making Southport a direct shipping point for the products of Brunswick county to be gathered along the line of the road. The acquisition of the Daggett property here by the railroad gives great opportunity for the construction of docks from which Brunswick county can by ships begin to supply the markets, first, with timber, ties and piling; then will come other products, and finally, the other railroads that are now building toward Southport as rapidly as it can be done, will open up Southport terminals of the harbor of the greatest possibilities on the Atlantic coast, to the markets of the world.

With the opening of the Panama canal, Southport, which presents so many advantages to the marine world, will come into her own.

Meanwhile, local industries should be developed and pushed ahead as fast as possible.

Funeral of Mr. E. C. Glavin

The funeral of Mr. Edward C. Glavin, whose death occurred at the James Walker Memorial Hospital Wednesday morning at an early hour, will be held from St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral this morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Father Kneisel will conduct the services. Interment will be made in [illegible] cemetery.

SUIT AND ATTACHMENT.

Tidewater Power Co., Brings Action Against Street Paving Concern.

Suit was started yesterday in Superior Court by the Tidewater Power Company against the Southern Paving & Construction Company, now laying streets in this city, for the collection of a claim of $840.32 alleged to be due the plaintiff company by the defendant. Attachment papers were issued by Mr. T. O. Bunting, who is acting as Deputy Clerk of Court, while Maj. W. N. Harriss is taking a short vacation, and were served yesterday afternoon on Mr. Frank Barber, the company's local representative, and on the property of the company, such as rock crushers, wheelbarrows, and other street paving machinery. Deputy Jno. Branch served the papers.

Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, was also notified to hold all money due the Southern Paving & Construction Company by the City until the matter is adjusted.

The complaint sets forth that there is now due and owing to the plaintiff from the defendant as freight charges for hauling brick and sand, and for switching cars and demurrage on cars, the sum of $840.32, and that payment had been demanded and refused by the defendant. Davis & Davis represent the plaintiff.

It was stated at the Sheriff's office late yesterday afternoon that the Southern Paving & Construction Co., had given notice that the amount of the claim would be paid this morning, in which event the proceedings will be stopped.

BEER WAS CONFISCATED.

Stray Lager Joins Turkey Mountain Corn at Police Station.

Ninety bottle of Piedmont beer, reposing in two gunny sacks under a pile of lumber on a vacant lot near Sixth and Wooster streets, and apparently without an owner, were seized by the police yesterday morning and are now reposing at the City Hall, keeping company with the 500-odd bottles of ownerless Turkey Mountain corn whiskey which were confiscated earlier in the week.

A telephone message was received at headquarters yesterday morning from Jacob Leonard, colored, who lives at 713 South Sixth street, stating that he had found the beer on a vacant lot in the rear of his premises, and asking what to do with it.

Hall Officer Joe Lane went to the place in the patrol wagon and took charge of the beer. There were two tow sacks full of the bottles, and a trail could be seen where someone had dragged them across Leonard's garden and secreted them under the pile of old lumber.

If the owner of the "suds" would like to put in his claim, he is most cordially invited to call at the police station.

JUSTICE WALTER CLARK HERE

Distinguished Carolinian Passing Through on Speaking Tour

Judge Walter Clark, the distinguished chief justice of the State Supreme Court, arrived in the city last evening from Burgaw where on yesterday he addressed the voters of Pender county in the interest of his candidacy for the United States Senate. He was a guest at The Orton for the night and leaves on an early train today for Jacksonville, N. C., where he will speak at a big celebration today. Few members of the bar or others knew of Judge Clark's presence in the city and he spent the evening quietly at his hotel with the exception of a brief conference with Mr. Frank Herbst, manager of his campaign in this county, and Walter C. Benson, Esq., one of his admirers and supporters. The gentlemen referred to found the Chief Justice pleased with the outlook for his success in the forthcoming State primary and gratified at the interest the people are taking generally in his candidacy.

WATCH AND MONEY GONE.

Burglary at Home of Mr. Chas. C. Hopkins Wednesday Night.

The home of Mr. Chas. C. Hopkins, at 121 South Seventh street, was entered by an unknown intruder some time Wednesday night or yesterday morning, and money in the sum of about $40 and a fine gold watch were secured. The robbery was discovered yesterday morning and was reported to the police. They have no clue to the identity of the burglar.

The house was entered from the rear porch and the intruder ransacked the first floor in his search for valuables. He secured the money and watch from Mr. Hopkins' trousers. He worked quietly and did not arouse the family, as the robbery was not discovered until Mr. Hopkins awoke yesterday morning.

This is the second time that Mr. Hopkins has had a watch stolen from his home, the other robbery occuring some months ago. It will be remembered that there have been no reports of robberies for several days following a slight outbreak a week or so ago. The police are working on the case and hope to find some clue that will enable them to put the guilty party behind the bars.

L., with headquarters in this city. Mr. Elliott succeeds to the soliciting duties of Mr. W. G. Pulliam, recently promoted, and will have charge of the solicitation of freight in the Wilmington territory. He is thoroughly conversant with the handling of freights, has a pleasant address and will well take care of the Atlantic Coast Line's interest in the local field.

Yesterday's Baltimore Sun says:

"Valuable additions to the Walters Art Gallery reached Baltimore last Monday on the steamer Bosnia from Hamburg, Germany.

"That Mr. Walters has added to his already valuable collection of art treasures was not a surprise to his friends. He has spent the greater part of the Summer abroad and, as has been his custom since the new gallery was opened, purchased articles in many of the leading centres of Europe. Last year he added a number of Grecian and Roman bronzes and specimens of modern pottery."

DOING WORK GRATIS

Contracting Firm Makes City Present Of Some Asphalt Blocks

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock it was reported to Mayor Smith that the Southern Paving & Construction Co., had begun to tear up Chesnut street, between Front and Second, preparatory to laying asphalt blocks on that stretch of thoroughfare, the contract for which was passed on its first reading at the regular meeting of Council Wednesday morning. The firm had already been notified that the work must not be commenced until the contract was passed on its second reading at the next regular meeting next Wednesday. Mayor Smith sent an officer to investigate, his purpose being to bring indictment for failure to obtain a permit to dig in the street.

The man in charge informed the officer that work under the contract had not been begun, but that the company had made the city a present of a number of small asphalt blocks and that no charge whatever would be made for laying them. Upon this representation of the matter and upon the condition that the city is not to pay a cent for the work now going on, Mayor Smith granted the permit, saying that he did not object to having the streets improved gratis, but that when the city was expected to pay the bill he wanted the contract duly ratified according to the requirements of the law.

The Recorder's Court.

Yesterday's session of the Recorder's court was a very short one and almost altogether devoid of interest, the cases on the docket all being for petty offenses. William Allen, colored, paid the costs for violating the tax ordinance; Abraham Watson and Chas. Rhone, both colored, were let off on payment of costs for violating the driving ordinance, and Mack Pridgen, colored, was assessed the costs for violating the speed ordinance. One drunk contributed the usual $5 and costs. A case against G. W. Larkins, colored, charged with violating the driving ordinance, was not prossed. Two cases against Sis Baldwin, of police court fame, charged with being drunk and disorderly and resisting an officer, were continued until today.

COLUMBUS PRIMARIES.

Second Contest for Several of the Offices—The Results.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Whiteville, N. C., Aug. 22.—The Board of Canvassers of Columbus county met this afternoon in the Court House to receive and count the vote cast in Tuesday's primary. The official count was made of all the officers voted for.

J. B. Williamson lacked 15 votes of receiving a majority over Donald McRackan and A. T. Clark, and which will necessitate a second primary between Williamson and McRackan. The Clark vote will decide the winner, as that is balance of power. Arthur W. Baldwin was nominated for register of deeds, receiving 100 majority over Daniel Hester, his opponent. Daniel R. Gore lacked 76 votes of receiving a majority for treasurer, over his four opponents, and must run another race with Mr. Barden, of Cerro Gordo. Dr. Slade Smith was renominated for coroner by a large majority over Faircloth. Four candidates for county commissioner received enough votes to nominate, viz.: C. C. Pridgen, R. E. L. Brown, A. M. Benton and R. Q. Powell; for the fifth place a second race must be run between John P. Council and J. N. Cox. All that section of our county lying east of Whiteville has no commissioner. Powell is the only member of the old board.

"Silver Wing's Two Suitors"

Intensely dramatic and sensational story of Indian life. At the Grand Theatre today. **

..Theatric...

A beautiful Pathe India... "Silver Wing's Two Suitors,... the premier offering in mo... tures at The Grand Theatre to... this with two other films wil... patrons of the movays sit up... notice. This film of Indian life has just been released and represents the latest and best in photoplays.

In brief the picture show the persistence of a despised suitor, even after Silver Wing has wed the man of her choice, results in his death in the whirling rapids of the Tecumseh river. He richly deserves his fate, for, although a husband and father, he has taken advantage of every mean opportunity to take Silver Wing from her True Brave. The scene wherein he passes through the rapids to his grave is deeply stirring.

The second feature is "The Church Across The Way." It cheers and brightens, bringing happiness to the heart of a downcast man and a new found joy in life. This is a beautiful story and teaches a lesson that is well worth the earnings of many a man who is sadly indifferent to the higher life. The story is well told and should be witnessed by everyone.

The price of admission is only five cents to any part of the house day or night and everybody is cordially welcomed when they come.

At The Bijou

It is with special pleasure and particular emphasis that the Bijou today calls attention to the star film of its excellent bill. Of course, there are many superb photoplay creations on today's bill, catering to every taste, but it is well to call attention to the topliner, which is out of the ordinary and which the Bijou management deems itself indeed fortunate in having obtained. It is the great film success and sensation, "The Wayfarer," and it is the most heart-gripping creation of years, as well as the most graphic. It tells a story of the West, which furnishes a fine setting for its vividness and thrills. The scenes in and around the rough log cabin, especially when the Mexican Pedro steals the money of the injured settler are indeed exciting. The discovery made by the settler's wife and her daring and skill in lassoing the thief are startling. The Mexican is bound, but burns the ropes with a red hot poker and then a battle occurs between the Mexican and settler in the log cabin that is a thriller. The return of the wife with the sheriff ends the picture happily, but the interest is kept up in intense manner to the very last.

The Bijou did rushing business yesterday and besides providing the very best of entertainment, furnished a delightfully cool retreat from the hot weather. The Bijou's perfect system of ventilation also makes it a decidedly healthful spot. The price of admission is but 5 cents, afternoon and night—the same old tiny Bijou price.

"BELLWOOD" THE NAME.

Attractive Farm Proposition Soon to be Offered in County.

"Bellwood" and not "Bellewood"—catch the difference?—is to be the name of the extensive farm suburban development which the Hanover Realty Co., will shortly place upon the market near Wrightsboro, on the Castle Haynes road. A very large tract of land—some of the very best in the county—belonging to Mr. M. J. Heyer, has been divided into five-acre farms and they will be marketed within the next ten days. The property will be known as "Bellwood Farms." They are located immediately on the Castle Haynes turnpike, in close proximity to Wrightsboro station, where every facility for shipping is offered and to which the proprietors of the development will extend a modern road leading right through the development.

FELL FROM BUILDING.

Mr. William Landon, Young Tinner, Suffers Broken Thigh.

Mr. William Landon, a young tinner, who came to this city a short time ago from Chinquapin, N. C., to work at his trade, was painfully hurt yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock when he lost his balance and fell from the stop of one of the two story houses being erected for Mr. J. H. Rehder, on Fourth street, between Red Cross and Campbell. His right thigh was broken just above the knee and he received a number of bruises on the left side. There is a fence between the building on which he was at work and the residence at corner of Fourth and Red Cross and it is thought that he struck the palings in his descent.

The ambulance was called and the young man was hurried to the James Walker Memorial Hospital, where the broken limb was set and the bruises given attention. It was stated at the institution last night that he was getting along as well as could be expected. He will be confined at the hospital for some weeks.

Are the Fly and Mosquito Dangerous?

The fly, with spongy feet, collects the invisible germs of diseases, spreads them over our food and poisons us with typhoid and cholera. The mosquito with its bite injects into our veins malaria and yellow fever. The bacteria of consumption, or grip, are everywhere present for us to breathe into our lungs. The blood which flows through our veins and arteries is our protection. It should contain healthy red and white blood corpuscles—capable of warding off these disease germs. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a blood medicine and alterative made entirely without alcohol, a pure glyceric extract of bloodroot, golden seal, Oregon grape root, queen's root, mandrake and stone root, which has enjoyed a good reputation for over forty years. The refreshing influence of this extract is like Nature's influence—the blood is bathed in the tonic which gives life to the blood—the vital fires of the body burn brighter and their increased activity consumes the tissue rubbish which has accumulated during the winter.

M. MAGUIRE, ESQ.

"About forty years ago while in Newark, New Jersey, I had chills and fever," writes MR. MICHAEL MAGUIRE, of National Military Home, Kans. "I went to Kansas City and in the spring of 1877 the chills and fever returned. Doctors and everything I tried failed to do me good. Finally I saw Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery advertised. I took one bottle of it and the chills vanished. In about a year afterward I felt them coming back so I got another bottle and have never had any symptoms of fever or ague since. That is all of twenty years ago, for I had the chills about twelve years before I started to take Golden Medical Discovery.'"

COTTON MARKET LESS ACTIVE

Much of Yesterday's Trading Was for Purpose of Evening Up Accounts —Fluctuations Irregular, Close Unchanged

New York, August 22.—The cotton market was less active today and much of the trading was supposed to be for the purpose of evening up accounts for over the approaching holidays and the government report due early next month. Fluctuations were irregular, with the close steady, net one point higher to one point lower.

The market opened steady at an advance of 1 to 5 points in response to relatively firm Liverpool cables, but alomst immediately eased off under reports of rains in Texas, rumors that the bigger shorts had pretty well covered, and reports of increased Southern offerings, presumably against the coming crop. Prices sold about 5 to 6 points under the closing figures of last night as a result of this pressure, but as soon as additional weather news was received from the Southwest, indicating that the Texas rains had not reached the drouthy sections of that State, the market became steadier. Buying by Memphis was one of the features of the advance and was accompanied by rumors that preliminary returns to the National Ginners' Association suggested a bullish condition figure. These rumors were not confirmed, however, and an advance of 6 or 7 points from yesterday's finals brought out increased offerings, which seemed to reflect realizing by early buyers, or a renewal of local pressure. At any rate, the market eased off to about the closing figures of last night, and was very quiet in the late trading.

Flying Men Fall

victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles just like other people, with like results in loss of appetite, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that as T. D. Peebles, Henry, Tenn., proved. "Six bottles of Electric Bitters," he writes, "did more to give me new strength and good appetite than all other stomach remedies I used." So they help everybody. It's folly to suffer when this great remedy will help you from the first dose. Try it. Only 50 cents at R. R. Bellamy.

STOCK MARKET WENT STALE

Pending Panama Canal Legislation Was Responsible for the Heavy Tone—Railroad Shares Under Heavy Pressure

New York, August 22.—Pending Panama Canal legislation was the subject of general discussion in financial circles today and regarded as primarily responsible for the heavy tone of the stock market, especially the railroad division. Pacifics and other railroads whose destinies are more or less involved in the outcome of this measure, were under steady pressure, which at times suggested liquidation.

There were persistent rumors, also, affecting the Antrhacite coal shares and the likelihood of some decision adverse to those properties by the Inter-State Commerce Commission. Reading and Lehigh Valley were increasingly weak and gossip attributed much of the selling to prominent out-of-town interests. The rest of the market seemed to have gone stale with a partial flattening out of the recent copper boom. Amalgamated Copper and allied shares were strong at the outset, but fell back easily in the course of the afternoon under a selling movement that embraced all issues of speculative importance. Specialties were less prominent, the only feature of interest being American Tobacco, which suffered another material loss. Dealings were much the largest of any session of the week, a fact not without its significance in view of the trend of prices.

The bond market was weak, some issues falling a full point. Total sales, par value, aggregated $1,610,000. United States government bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales, 487,000 shares.

ELECTRICAL STORM.

Brilliant Display Last Night Here and at the Beach.

An electrical storm of some proportions passed over the city early last night, accompanied by some wind and a downpour of rain which was decidedly welcome, following other rains during the afternoon. There was a brilliant display of electricity and once the lighting system was endangered by a peculiarly sharp flash, but the excellent equipment of the Tidewater Power Co. withstood the strain with only a few minutes' interruption of the service.

One electric car on the suburban line was burned out as a result of the electricity, but there was only a trifling delay in schedules. People at the beach witnessed a rare phenomenon when a bolt of lightning struck out in the ocean and sprangled off into seven forks, according to those who witnessed it.

So far as reported, there was no damage by the storm.

Indian Killed on Track.

Near Rochelle, Ill., an Indian went to sleep on a railroad track and was killed by the fast express. He paid for his carelessness with his life. Often it's that way when people neglect coughs and colds. Don't risk your life when prompt use of Dr. King's New Discovery will cure them and so prevent a dangerous throat or lung trouble. "It completely cured me, in a short time of a terrible cough that followed a severe attack of grip," writes J. R. Watts, Floydada, Tex., "and I regained 15 pounds in weight that I had lost." Knight's Big Excursion to Columbia. The Best of All the Big Ones.

Columbia, S. C., is admirably situated to afford pleasure to the many whose limitations in time or money are admirably met by its remarkable accessibility and by the convenient and inexpensive means of travel made possible by this excursion train. Here are pleasures to suit the taste of every comer, for the keynote to the character of Columbia is cosmopolitanism. A trip to this delightful city lingers in the memory to brighten the stressful days of a less happy season. It is a center that attracts thousands of visitors every year—visitors who, after once experiencing its generous hospitality, return loyally, year after year. No sober prose can do justice to Columbia. It needs the inspired pen of the poet to adequately sing its mighty praise. No other city can outrival it in civic pride, energy and intelligent enterprise. Its homes and streets bespeak not only the wealth of the community, but a degree of taste not often found in similar communities. This promises to be the most convenient, delightful and satisfactory excursion ever devised. If you have friends in Columbia, take this chance to visit them. Train will leave this point via the great Atlantic Coast Line Tuesday, August 27th, at 7:00 A. M. and will leave Columbia Wednesday, August 28th, at 9:00 P. M. The round trip from here is only $2.50.

of the regular Republican party in the present campaign for their own personal uses. Evidence regarding this matter will be submitted to the proper Senate Committee for consideration. The ultimate object of this enormous fund was the control of the Republican party in the interests of the element represented by Mr. Perkins. The largest campaign fund in the history of the United States for a nomination was raised for Mr. Roosevelt at the primaries last Winter."

Alleged contributions of $100.000 each by the Missouri Pacific and the Southern Pacific railroads to the Roosevelt campaign fund in 1904 were mentioned by Senators Reed and Penrose, Senator Penrose declaring that President Roosevelt was always in close touch with the National Committee managing his campaign.

When the colloquy between Senators Penrose and Reed was concluded, Senator Reed made an extended speech attacking Roosevelt and reopening the question of the $250,000 collected for the Republican campaign fund in 1904 by E. H. Harriman, and placing in the record all of the so-called "Archbold" correspondence recently published. Senator Reed also attacked George W. Perkins, at present one of the leaders of the new Progressive party.

When he concluded Senator Poindexter took the floor and characterized the day's proceedings as a "combination, an understanding, and alliance, "between the 'machine Republicans 'and the 'machine Democrats' against progressive principles." He objected to the immediate consideration of the resolution presented by Senator Penrose, and a sweeping amendment presented by Senator Reed, and both went over. The resolution was not needed, however, to allow the campaign contributions subcommittee to proceed with its investigation.

Senator Reed and Williams denied any "alliance" between Senator Penrose and the Democrats.

"We hunt bull moose today," Senator Williams said and "elephant tomorrow."

In the course of his speech Senator Reed attacked at length the so-called Morgan interests and concluded with the declaration:

"That concern, it seems to me having cornered the iron and steel business of the land, largely controlling its banks and its trust companies and its transportation lines, has concluded at last that the time has come when it can own a President.

"They started their handy man Perkins out to finance his campaign and they thought they would win. He got in so deep before they knew it that they could not get back up and now they are standing before the American people almost apologizing for their existence and Roosevelt is trying to pretend to the American people that Perkins is here like a man already repentant, coming with tear strained eyes to make up for past misdeeds—a stranger in the Roosevelt camp.

Senator Reed said that Colonel Roosevelt's statement yesterday in reply to Senator Penrose and the publication of the Cortelyou letters had suggested some questions he wanted to ask. He called attention to the fact that the Archbold letter to Senator Penrose announcing an enclosure of $25,000, bore date of October 13th, 1904.

"Can the Senator state whether the $100,000 which was also paid by the Standard Oil people was paid on or prior to the 13th day of October," he asked.

Senator Penrose said he thought it was paid "on or about that time, perhaps a little time before."

The letter President Roosevelt wrote to Chairman George B. Cortelyou of the Republican National Committee telling him to accept no contribution from the Standard Oil Company," was sent about a week before the election," Senator Penrose declared.

"As I understood the Senator then, the money had been received before this letter of Mr. Roosevelt was dated?" said Senator Reed.

"Considerably," said Senator Penrose.

"Had the money been spent or was it on hand, and was it in fact returned," asked Senator Reed.

"The information I have always had as to the transaction was that Mr. Roosevelt was advised that the money had been spent and could not be returned and the letter was sent to make a record for future reference," replied Senator Pnrose.

"Can the Senator state whether in fact the letter was written with full knowledge that the money was drawn?" asked Senator Reed.

"That is my distinct information, and also the information of many others," said Senator Penrose.

"Do you know that any large sums of money were contributed to the National Republican Committee in 1904 that were returned to the donors?" asked Senator Reed.

"The returning of contributions is such a rare instance on the part of political committees that if there had been any other case it would have made a profound impression on my mind and I do not recall any others," replied, Senator Penrose.

Senator Reed asked whether Mr. Penrose knew of any contributions to the campaign fund of 1904 by the Missouri-Pacific, Southern Pacific or Gould interests.

"I have no direct knowledge," Mr. Penrose answered, "simply my information at the time that large contributions were made from those interests."

"You mean that while actively engaged with the Republican National Committee, as a member of that body you understood that these interests had contributed heavily to the fund?" asked Reed.

"That is correct," said Penrose.

"To what extent were the acts of the National Committee concealed from Mr. Roosevelt," asked Senator Reed.

"My observation of Mr. Roosevelt," said Penrose, "has been that he was well calculated to have pretty superior knowledge about everything that was going on in the National Committee. I do not think there was a day, and in some days an hour in the day, that the chairman of the National Committee was not in communication with him over the telephone."

Senator Penrose emphasized the fact that President Roosevelt had named George B. Cortelyqou, his former secretary and cabinet officer, as chairman of the National Committee and expressed the opinion that Mr. Cortelyou did not conceal anything from the President in the matter of committee affairs or contributions.

Senator Stone wanted to know how the three million dollars which Mr. Penrose had said was raised for Colonel Roosevelt, was used.

"I meant to state," said Senator Penrose, that the object of this enormous amount and unprecedented campaign fund was the ultimate control of the regular Republican nomination in the convention held in June in Chicago which nominated Mr. Taft for President and Mr. Sherman for Vice-President. What underwriting has occurred since then for the third party remains to be developed."

Senator Borah interrupted to ask about the activities of the Republican National Committee, at the Chicago convention.

"The majority of the National Committee exercised every opportunity possible to restrict and restrain the efforts to purchase colored Taft delegates at $5,000 a head," replied Senator Penrose.

"I suppose the Senator is not prepared to state how they got them back?" asked Senator Borah.

"We got them back by appealing to their manhood and their reputation for honor and integrity and in most every case we got them back," Mr. Penrose answered.

"I take it that the men who would wander off the reservation for the purpose of raising the price could not have very much manhood left to appeal to, to get back," Senator Borah said.

When the Senate came to the final consideration of the Penrose resolution, Senator Poindexter insisted that it go over until tomorrow. Senators Bristow and Clapp, both of whom are Progressive associates of Senator Poindexter, urged him to withdraw his objection, but he insisted that he wanted time to examine it.

"Has the Senator from Washington any objection to this inquiry demanded Senator Penrose.

"I do not know that I have any objection to the inquiry," said Mr. Poindexter. "This drama that we witnessed here this afternoon being played between the leading representativs of the Democratic party and the representatives of the old Republican machine of Pennsylvania, is a very unexpected development in the political situation and any resolution which grows out of this team work is a matter that requires a little thought and examination before it be consented to."

"What is the peculiar combination of interests to which you refer?" demanded Senator Williams.

"The peculiar combination of interests to which I have referred is the Senator from Mississippi and the Senator from Missouri and the Senator from Pennsylvania," retorted Mr. Poindexter.

"The joint efforts of these three Senators bring out into very clear relief the one issue that there is in the politics of the country today—upon the one side those measures of purpose and of improvement in political conditions which are represented by Colonel Roosevelt, his platform and his candidacy—and measures opposed to it.

"It has brought out the fact that those who are working in harmony and in conjunction in opposition to that platform and those measures are the Senators I have just named. And the peculiarity about it is the apparent understanding and the harmony with which this combination works."

Senator Reed declared the Democrats were trying to uncover Republican shortcomings and asked Senator Penrose to tell anything he knew about the use of money or patronage in behalf of President Taft at the Chicago convention.

"Whenever one Republican will tell on another, to help him," said Senator Reed.

Senator Poindexter insisted that Senator Penrose and Senator Reed were both "confining their attacks to Colonel Roosevelt."

"The candidate who was nominated at Chicago by the black belt delegates and the delegates from the Territories, seems to have been obscured in this debate," he said.

Senator Reed declared that the Democrats "had the confession from one man that he had handled funds of the trusts, and we propose to have it from the other or prove his guilt."

"We intend to let the people know that Theodore Roosevelt is one of the gentlemen whose hands were most thoroughly tarred," he continued.

"In getting information from these men who are alleged to have given contributions, I suppose the Senator from Missouri would in turn give them the immunity bath," said Poindexter.

"The only man who has given immunity baths is Theodore Roosevelt," retorted Mr. Reed. "He gave one when he permitted the Steel Trust to absorb the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company; he truckled to George W. Perkins and ordered stopped the investigation of the Harvester Trust."

"The facts do not bear any such statements as that," said Senator Poindexter.

"Well, if the Senator knows where William H. Taft has been getting money for his campaign funds, or has been giving immunity baths, to individuals or corporations, he ought to tell us about it this afternooon," said Mr. Reed. "I think William H. Taft will get all the money he can in this campaign from the corporations."

"Preposterous," Says Perkins.

New rYok, Aug. 22.—When the statement of Senator Penrose regarding an underwriting of $3,000,000 to capture the Republican National Convention was read to George W. Perkins tonight, he said: "It is a preposterous statement without a word of truth in it."

COUNTRY BANKERS IN ANNUA...T

...but he knew every member... Association felt that he was... in the truest sense of the word. He stated that the president had allowed him to select a subject for his address and that he had selected "Country Real Estate," a subject which was closely allied to the banking business and which he felt was worthy of the consideration of the bankers. He declared that the subject was of enough importance to warrant him putting the fact on paper and that as so disinguished a personage as so distinguished a personage as use manuscript when referring to important matters, he did not feel at all abashed in doing so. When the name of Woodrow Wilson was mentioned, the speaker was interrupted by a burst of applause.

Maj. McKinnon then read a most interesting paper on the subject of country real estate. It set forth the fact that country real estate is one thing that is in need of further development, but as the National banking laws refuse to handle real estate mortgages and the State banks cannot make long loans, the land owner is often handicapped by reason of lack of funds with which to develop his land. The suggestion was that the bankers formulate a plan whereby the land owner can put his real estate into a deed of trust with his local banker, issue bonds on 10 to 30 year basis, sell what is necessary to develop his land and let the increased income from the property pay the interest and create a sinking fund that will care for the bonds on maturity.

The paper went into further detail of the plan and it made quite a favorable impression on the convention. It will be given in full in a later issue of the Star.

President Gore then read his annual report, in which several important recommendations as to the meetings of the Association and the election of its officers, were made.

President Gore's Report

Addressing the association in his annual report, President Gore said:

"I have approached this hour with much seriousness, for I feel that our purpose has not been flattered by our accomplishments. The past year seems very short when we look at it in review. We have not accomplished much in fact, but if we have made our members more fully realize the importance of the business side of this association, we will have accomplished much for the future welfare of the country banking profession.

"What position do we country bankers, as an organization, occupy in the commercial world? Some of those present are doubtful as to the correct answer to this question. After good fellowship the purpose of our organization was co-operation. The funders of this association thought that its members could get better terms from their city correspondents by co-operation. And by co-operation could get a better discount rate from their New York correspondents. These questions are presented so seldom that few of our members know the original purpose of our organization. There is nothing to be said about our accomplishments along this line. Since country banks have become so numerous many other questions arise on which action as a unit would be of advantage.

"Thinking along this line brings us face to face with another question. Are our meetings to become mostly social or mostly business?' I would not answer this question by saying it should be either. When we have all pleasure the acts of our association are not the results of sound thinking. Members are not in a serious frame of mind and you cannot induce them to be. I have known far-reaching resolutions to get through our State conventions that did not express the will of 20 per cent of the members. I have known some of the best business men of the State to resign their membership in one of our manufacturing associations because there was too much frolicking and drinking. These are the kind of men we can't get along without and we should provide a way to hold them.

"On the other hand all work and no play makes a bad banker. If there are no pleasure features attached to our meetings, there will be few present. My solution of this question is to have two meetings each year. One in which the social side is featured, this one in the Summer, at a Summer resort, seashore, springs or mountains, where entertainment is already provided. Then another meeting in the Winter, a one-day session, between trains if necessary, where only business of vital importance is discussed, at a place as near central as possible.

"I think we should change our method of selecting our meeting place. Our meeting place for next year should be selected today or tomorrow by popular vote of those present and not by the executive committee. We should not wait to be asked to a place for our Summer meeting. We should select a place with the social side in view, and not expect entertainment at the hands of the community. A place with an auditorium preferable. For our Winter meeting, we should select a place where the schedules are convenient, and where there are several banks.

"Our members should become more interested in our association, and the way to interest them is to give them something to do. Can we find anything for our members to do? We should be willing to attack any evil that m arise in the banking world. Our future success depends on the enthusiasm and interest of the individual. Our strength will be measured by the collected strength of the individuals. If our members are active, our association will be a live wire. The spirit of devotion and sacrifice must be dominant among our members, if this association is ever to be heard of in the banking world.

"I hope this association will not go on record as recommending any financial bill fathered by Senator Aldrich. I might be doing this noted Senator an injustice, but his name has been attached to so much odious legislation in the past dozen years I feel it the better part of valor to refuse to recommend a bill with which he has anything to do.

"For myself and for the association, I extend thanks to my official colleagues and to the executive committee for their co-operation. I also thank the men who have served on our various committees.

"I wish to thank our efficient secretary who has so willingly done the drudgery of this association. He has freely and promptly responded to every call of your president. Only your president can appreciate the helpfulness of this kind of co-operation.

"I shall always appreciate the honor you conferred upon me. I regard it as the highest honor that could be conferred upon a country banker. I regret that I have not been able to do more to broaden our success, but I leave this office with the eye of one who has seen from the inside and with the determination to do more and much more to advance the influence of the Country Bankers' Association. Again, I thank you.

Mr. Evans then announced that next on the programme was the report of the secretary, Mr. Lacy Williams, cashier of the Bank of Maxton, but that Mr. Williams could not be present on account of the serious illness of his mother. Mr. Evans suggested that Mr. D. L. Gore, of Wilmington, who was present, make the convention a talk. Mr. Gore responded most pleasantly, declaring that he had been led into the trap unsuspectingly, but that he would like to call Major McKinnon's attention to one thing which he felt should have been embodied in his excellent paper on country real estate. This, he said, was the Torrens system of land titles. He knew that most young lawyers made their living by searching titles under the present antiquated system of land registration, but the country feels the need of the Torrens system and he declared that it would be a great benefit to land owners, the banking interests and all lines of business. Mr. Gore gave some very astute words of advice to the younger members of the association, calling their attention to the high character of their profession and declaring that the main thing in life is to try to do right to the best of one's ability and if mistakes are made to go back and do one's best to right them, and profit by experience.

Upon recommendation of President Gore a motion was adopted dispensing with a nominating committee and authorizing the nomination and election of officers from the floor at the business session today.

On motion of a resolution offered by Mr. Leake S. Covington, of Rockingham, president of the North Carolina Bankers' Association, and an ex-president of the Country Bankers' Association, extending the sympathy of the organization to its secretary, Mr. Lacy Williams, in the serious illness of his mother, which prevented his attending the convention, was ordered telegraphed to Mr. Williams in the form of a night letter. President Gore appointed Mr. Covington and Mr. W. B. Cooper as a committee to have this in charge.

Other committees appointed were as follows:

Resolutions—Ed. Crow, J. H. McKoy and B. A. Houston.

Auditing—Cole Nichols, F. Sears and J. D. Maultsby, Jr.

The session then adjourned and a reception and dance in the hotel ball room were given in honor of the visitors. The pleasant affair lasted several hours and in addition to the visiting bankers and members of their families was attended by a large number of other guests of the hotel.

Today's Programme

The convention will be called to order this morning at 9:30 and there will be addresses by President John O. Ellington, of the Anchor Trust Company, Raleigh; President Jos. A. Brown, of the Bank of Chadbourn, and President J. Bayard Clark, of the Bank of Elizabethtown. A general discussion of banking topics will follow, after which the report of the committees will be received. The election and installation of officers will then be taken up and the convention will formally come to a close.

During the afternoon the boats of the hotel will be at the disposal of the bankers for fishing, sailing parties, etc. Mr. J. F. Roache, cashier of the Home Savings Bank, this city, is representing the Wilmington banks in the entertainment features.

A favor dance will be given tonight. The pavilion will be appropriately decorated and handsome favors will be presented the dancers by the Tidewater Power Company. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock.
